- He ended up in jail at the age of 16
- George's father paid to have him released from jail he decided he was going to send him to University to learn to work in a church
- George was still bad and stole money and gambled
- He would stay a fancy motels and then escape out the window and not pay

Christian friend

- George had a friend who was a christian and he invited George to Bible study, after that Bible study George believed in God

God opened his eyes

- After graduating from University, George started his orphan ministry
- George never asked anyone for anything or told anyone what the needs were for the orphans - he only told God
- There were times when there were no food - so George Mueller prayed and God provided

Story

One day all the children stood around tables set with plates but no food. George Mueller said grace and thanked god for the food. There was a knock on the door – a baker couldn't sleep as he thought the orphans would need some food for breakfast.

Another day again George Mueller thanked God for the food and there was a knock at the door – a milkman's cart had broken wheel and he wanted to give the orphans the milk as he needed to unload the cart to fix the wheel.

A life of a prayer...

Mueller's faith in God strengthened day by day and he spent hours in daily prayer and Bible reading. He reads the entire Bible 4 times a year.
