

Richard Wurmbbrand

Joel Bhima

His Life

- So, he has one wife and one son and so he is a missionary, and he is a preacher
- So, he born in March 4 1909 and he died in February 17 2001

Never Give Up

- one power point about him is that he continued his preaching even after he was released from jail and he never gived up in all situations
- So, even when he was in the death bed, he still trusted in god in everything

In Jail

- And the only word he was saying in jail to the officer is I love god can you believe on Jesus that was the only word that Richard Wurmbrand said in Jail and to the Officer

Lesson

- So one thing we have to learn from this missionary is that he trusted in god in every situation
- And have faith in god in every circumstances
- And obey as god said
